

Hoo's Writing Corner

Title Tips

Titles should be clear, concise and memorable. They should fit the type of book that you are writing. The title should be short, although there are always exceptions to this rule. It should be an interesting title and intriguing.

Ideas could come from:

- Character names
- Setting of the book
- The job of the main character (The Babysitter, the Wizard)
- The main action of the book (eg John's Journey, The Escape Plan)
- The problem of the book (The Owl who was Afraid of the Dark)

Still confused?

- Free write- write down all the ideas that come into your head, see if any of them fit what you want to write?
- If not, use a title generator tool online
- Still stuck? Come back to it later, or give it a working title for now. Chances are by the end of the book, you'll have a title that fits like a glove.