

Hoo's Writing Corner

Worksheet 6

Hoo & Zebby need to complete the story, but they need help with the correct spellings. Can you help them complete the sentences by choosing the correct spelling?

FARMER FRED'S LOST TRACTOR

Farmer Fred was on his way to the (fild, fields, feilds) when he (reelised, realized, realised) that the tractor had gone missing. He searched high and low and then called to his dog Shep to help. Shep knew straight away where the (trator, tracter, tractor) had gone. He (remembered, remmerbered, remembbered) that Fred had been called into the house early last night by his wife and left the tractor at the back of the shed.

JACOB'S HOMEWORK

Jacob was late for (skool, schol, school), he could see the bus turning the (corer, corner, corner) into his road. His mum called to him to hurry up. 'My homework!' he cried. He ran downstairs, calling to his mum, who nodded towards Ralf the dog, who had the work in his jaws. 'Oh no!' Luckily the dog hadn't chewed it up too much and he (caght, cought, caught) the bus on time.
